Emmanuel Church Growing Generations in Christ

As autumn deepens and the harvest season winds down, we are reminded once more that everything we have is a gift from God. Scripture teaches that we are not owners but stewards, caretakers of what He has placed in our hands. Jesus said in Luke 12:48, “From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded.” Faithful stewardship is not only about our finances but about the whole of life. It includes how we use our time, how we serve with our talents, and how we handle the resources we’ve been given in ways that honor Christ.

With that in mind, this is why the life of the church takes stewardship seriously as well. Each fall, we gather for our annual Charge Conference. To some it may feel like just another meeting, but it is much more than that. It is a time to look back and thank God for His faithfulness, to honestly consider where we are today, and to recommit ourselves to the ministry He has called us to. In many ways, it is our collective act of stewardship. We are taking account of what God has entrusted to us and asking whether it is being used in ways that advance His Kingdom.

And the way we steward these gifts today matters far beyond the present moment. Faithful stewardship is essential to our mission of growing generations in Christ. When we give, serve, and plan with faithfulness, we are planting seeds that will bear fruit long after we are gone. What we do with our financial, spiritual, and relational resources today will shape the church our children and grandchildren will one day receive. May we be found faithful now, so that those who come after us will inherit a rich harvest of faith.

A servant of the Savior,
Rev. W. Shane Frederick

help NEEDED

We are still needing one more person or family to be a communion steward for 2026! This position involves preparing communion ahead of time for one service a month. We currently have 5 stewards, so we are in need of one more. This way, each would do the preparation 2 times for the whole year. If you are willing and able to do this or have questions, please contact the church office asap and let us know.

We have adult shirts available in the office for purchase. They are being sold for $11.00 each. Call or stop by to see what sizes are available.
